

Veteran Litigation Support Project Manager Don Young joins TERIS Seattle

Young has been involved in numerous trials assisting in trial preparation and presentation in multiple courtrooms

Seattle, WA – January 7, 2010 – TERIS Seattle announced today that veteran litigation support project manager Don Young joined the company as Electronic Project Manager. Young has more than seven years of litigation consulting experience and will serve a dual role of consulting clients on eDiscovery projects while also implementing proper data harvesting, processing, review methodology and production support.

Young is proficient in TrialDirector, Sanction, Summation, Concordance, TimeMap, PowerPoint, Illustrator, Photoshop, Adobe Premier and Adobe AfterEffects. He has been involved in numerous trials assisting in trial preparation and presentation in the courtroom. Young is a Certified Legal Video Specialist as well as a certified Summation trainer.

“Don’s versatile experience is a very important addition to the TERIS Seattle team,” said Todd Krivoshein, TERIS Seattle General Manager. “He has the ability to apply his unique experience combining hands on customer service with project management to deliver results that serve the client’s best interests, depending on the need/challenge facing the litigation support team.”

Young previously worked at Bridge City Legal, where he began his career as a Customer Service Representative in 2002. His responsibilities expanded and he became Litigation Project Manager, a role he served from 2005 until his move to TERIS.

He received his Bachelor’s degree from the University of Washington in 2003.
