

TERIS Phoenix adds Electronic Discovery and Litigation Support professionals Brandon Colburn, Dennis Brooks and Todd Sparck

Appointment of ESI and litigation support industry veterans solidifies firm's expertise in eDiscovery and related technical services

PHOENIX, AZ – December 2, 2009 – TERIS Phoenix announced today the addition of three leading litigation support professionals to its growing Phoenix office. Brandon Colburn joins as Electronic Discovery Account Executive; Dennis Brooks joins as Director of IT/Project Manager and Todd Sparck joins as Production Manager for the company. The trio brings a combined mix of experience from both the legal and litigation support industries that bring immediate value for new and existing TERIS Phoenix clients.

“This group of experienced industry professionals brings a wealth of value to our clients within law firms and corporations alike,” said Richard Saldivar, TERIS Phoenix Managing Partner. “Our clients need a greater level of experience and proficiency in eDiscovery and related services. Brandon, Dennis and Todd are valuable additions as we continue to build our considerable expertise and success in these areas because ESI is one of our major areas of focus as we enter 2010 and serve a growing number of clients.”

Colburn joins TERIS from trial presentation firm Legalsized Inc., where he served as the region sales manager. He introduced the company into the Phoenix market and was responsible for sales and strategic partnerships. Colburn was also responsible for coordinating trial team support for Fortune 100 companies and ALM firms both locally and nationwide. Colburn has built a strong relationship for his work helping companies with corporate revenue growth, production organization, industry networking and public speaking.

Brooks comes to TERIS with considerable experience in the ESI industry. He is an industry recognized, litigation technology leader who thrives on managing multiple large, complex discovery projects. Prior to joining TERIS, Brooks was instrumental in growing the ESI business from zero to $5 million at RLS in the first twelve months of the practice. He also worked for Forensic Consulting Services (FCS). Saldivar noted that Brooks also has experience managing multi-Terabyte projects, which will be a huge asset to TERIS Phoenix as the company builds its ESI portfolio.

Sparck brings more than 10 years of litigation support experience to TERIS. He previously worked for IKON where he was the trainer for the Desert Southwest Operations Teams and later went on to serve as Director of Production for Encore.
