

TERIS Hires New Managing Partner for its Growing Chicago Office

TERIS taps experienced eDiscovery Sales Professional & Manager Mark S. Neace to lead its fast-growing Chicago office.

CHICAGO – July 6, 2010 – TERIS announced today the hiring of Mark S. Neace as Managing Partner for its thriving Chicago office. TERIS views this key hire as the cornerstone in an aggressive talent recruitment campaign that will continue throughout the near future.

As a proven motivator and mentor, Mark brings to the TERIS team over 12 years of extensive experience in data management, litigation, eDiscovery rules, processing, web hosting, early case assessment tools, coding, review and production. He is also an accomplished sales leader with a proven track record of building business, while maintaining and growing existing relationships – a talent that is particularly well-suited for the dynamic and growing Chicago office.

“TERIS is delighted to have Mark heading our Chicago office,” notes Kip Hauser, TERIS’ Chief Operating Officer. “Since opening the office last August, we’ve experienced strong growth – and we anticipate even more growth in the upcoming year, both in terms of the office and the market. Mark will play an important and exciting role in TERIS’ growth and expansion plans in Chicago and the Midwest.”

Prior to joining TERIS, Mark was a senior Sales Manager and Consultant with a Chicago-area litigation support company. His duties included: handling all sales department decision-making, distributing territories, recruiting key personnel, and overseeing operations P&L.
